

"Go into all the world..."

DEAR FRIENDS AND FAMILY

Greeting from South Africa! I am glad to once again have the opportunity to write to you and share with you what is taking place in my life! Much has happened in the past several weeks here at Africa School of Missions.

My studies are continuing to go well, although they have kept me very busy. Within the past month, Africa School of Missions has undergone much change because of a problem that was found with the registration for the school. As a result, I am now doing correspondence studies directly through South African Theological Seminary, but will remain at Africa School of Missions campus for the time being. This actually opens many doors in that it allows much more flexibility than before.

A few weeks ago was Arts week. We learned about mime, drama, clowning, puppets, and dance. It was definitely a challenging week because many of the activities required me to step far out of my comfort zone. However, as always, God used this difficult week to do many things in my heart and there were many breakthroughs that I experienced. We then used what we learned in Arts week to engage in several different outreaches within the nearby community. We spent time at a prison, a pre-school, and a rehabilitation center. It was very challenging because we had to learn to be flexible, spontaneous, and sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit since each "audience" that we ministered to was very different from one another. But it was such an amazing experience to be able to share the love of God with these people who really needed it. My favorite day was when we visited the pre-school. It was my job to be a clown and had I an amazing time playing with the children. It was such a blessing to be able to share a day with each one of those little ones!

We are now in the middle of our two-week fall break and will begin again on the 7th of April. There are several opportunities that have presented themselves in the past several weeks. Many doors have opened and I am excited about the possibility of each one of them. The challenge now is to hear from the Lord to decide which one is God's perfect will for me. Will you pray with me in this as I seek God's face?

I want to once again thank you for all of your prayers and support! God had truly blessed me by allowing you to be a part of what He is doing in my life! Blessings, Kristen Praise Reports!

Praise the Lord that He gave me the ability to finished so much of my studies successfully in the first term.

Prayer Requests:

Please pray with me as I trust the Lord to confirm His will for my life. I am very excited about the things that God has prepared for me in the future, but just now need to hear from Him what exactly they are!
